MAX HOMA, WYNDHAM CLARK, SAM BURNS HEADLINE EARLY COMMITMENTS FOR 2025 3M OPEN

Defending Champion Jhonattan Vegas; Top Collegiate Stars Also Set to Compete at TPC Twin Cities

BLAINE, MN – Tournament officials today announced that several of the PGA TOUR's most popular and accomplished players—including Max Homa, Wyndham Clark, Sam Burns, and Tom Kim—have committed to compete in the 2025 3M Open, taking place July 21–27 at TPC Twin Cities in Blaine, Minnesota.

Headlining the early field is defending champion Jhonattan Vegas, who earned his first PGA TOUR title since 2017 with a one-stroke victory at the 2024 3M Open, finishing at 17-under-par. Vegas aims to become the first back-to-back winner in 3M Open history.

Also joining the field are rising stars Michael LaSasso, the 2025 NCAA Individual Champion, along with PGA TOUR University standouts David Ford (No. 1) and Brendan Valdes (No. 2).

“We’re thrilled about our initial group of player commitments to this year’s 3M Open,” said Mike Welch, 3M Open Tournament Director. “From fan favorites and major champions to the next generation of golf stars, our field showcases the diversity, talent and competitive spirit that make this event so special. It’s going to be another unforgettable week at TPC Twin Cities.”

Tickets and hospitality packages are on sale now for Minnesota’s only PGA TOUR event, including Fan Passes and premium hospitality options.

Kids 15 and under get in free with a paid adult courtesy of Cub, and active duty, retired, and veteran military members are eligible for two complimentary grounds passes for one day of tournament play (Thursday–Sunday).

In addition to world-class golf, fans can enjoy 3M Open Swings and Strings presented by Scotch™ Brand, an on-site post-round concert featuring multi-platinum country music recording artist Lee Brice.
