Andy Grammer Brings Pop Power to 3M Open Week Tickets & Hospitality on Sale April 13

BLAINE, MN – The 3M Open is once again delivering world-class golf and entertainment. Tickets and hospitality packages for Minnesota’s only PGA TOUR event go on sale Monday, April 13—and this year, fans can look forward to another exciting post-round concert experience.

Tournament officials announced today that multi-platinum pop artist Andy Grammer will perform on Saturday, July 25, as part of 3M Open Swings & Strings. The concert will begin at approximately 6 p.m., following Round 3 at TPC Twin Cities.

Grammer continues to energize, empower, and bring together audiences around the world with his uplifting and honest pop anthems. Named the No. 1 “Happy” streaming artist globally, he has amassed more than 3 billion global streams and built a social media following of nearly five million fans.

His catalog includes numerous hits, including the 5x platinum single “Honey, I’m Good,” the 2x platinum singles “Keep Your Head Up,” “Fresh Eyes,” and “Don’t Give Up On Me,” as well as the platinum singles “Good To Be Alive (Hallelujah)” and “Fine By Me.”

“The 3M Open is all about giving fans unforgettable experiences, and adding Andy Grammer to tournament week does just that,” said Jennifer Hines, 3M Open Assistant Tournament Director. “After a day of PGA TOUR action, fans can enjoy an incredible performance from an artist who truly brings people together.”
