

ROUND 3 QUICK QUOTES
July 26, 2025

JESPER SVENSSON (-15)

Q. Jesper, great playing, putting yourself into contention there. What was working well for you out there today?

JESPER SVENSSON: Approaches from the rough. It was a lot of (inaudible) sort of pretty good position to those pins. Yeah, took advantage of those approaches.

Q. You finished pretty nicely on the weekend at Portrush. Do you feel like there was anything that you kind of saw in your game from the weekend that you've kind of transitioned over here?

JESPER SVENSSON: Golf's a funny game. It's like been working on stuff for the whole season and I feel like something finally felt a little bit better at Portrush and sort of carried that same feeling going into this week.

Q. What's it like playing, going from a course like Portrush to a place like TPC Twin Cities where birdies are a little more available and you're having to kind of go after it?

JESPER SVENSSON: Yeah, it's definitely quite an adjustment coming here going from quite firm greens to -- and slow to soft greens and fast. So spent some extra time trying to dial in the speed, and seeing the reads, the ball breaks a lot more on these greens.

Q. First year on Tour after the DP World Tour, is it hard learning each course week by week? Do you feel like you're at a disadvantage having not played them or do you have any strategies for learning new courses?

JESPER SVENSSON: It's been my life the last two years. I was a rookie last year on DP as well so I guess I'm kind of used to not being too comfortable getting to every course. But yeah, it's been good. I went to college here so it's not too -- still familiar being over here in the States.

Q. You had a great year last year, Rookie of the Year on the DP World Tour. How would you describe yourself as a player today as compared to maybe a year ago today?

JESPER SVENSSON: That's a great question, I'm not sure. I don't think I think too much about it. Still feel like the same player. Maybe a bit -- I mean, I like to think that I've probably come a little bit further than last year, but yeah, not quite sure.

Q. Did you have any goals for this year on Tour or just taking it week by week?

JESPER SVENSSON: Just coming over here and just test it out. It's always been a dream to play on the PGA TOUR. Yeah, it's been great so far. Yeah, I mean the goal is definitely to keep the card for next season.
